SQ3: The Threesome Twin Quandary; Accessory to Incest

Formal Abstract:

Taboo states thou shall not partake in the forbidden fruit of shagalitious relationships between blood related sibilings. However, there comes a time in every warm blooded human's life where the idea of being with two sibilings of another family doesn't excite them. The fine line of incest and sexual excitement becomes blurred. An examination of where the line exists between incest and sexual elation is examined herein using a random sampling technique and pseudo statistical analysis.

Background Information

This poll began nearly 10 years ago. On the heels of the prior two polls, the third poll was born in a night of debauchery and alcohol. While the contents of the night are long since forgotten through a decade of decadence, remnants of that night still exist.

In that day and age, the internet was still in the fledgling stages of stealing full C: drives of information via scour and poorly protected windows sharing. The rules of “what goes on the internet, stays on the internet” did not exist. Facebook was *.edu email addresses only and for posting photos of the latest college party. The girl in your graduating class was posting photos of her tits, not her kids. Digital photography was still a new technology and cell phone plans cost less than $30/mo with limited minutes. How the world has taken a regressive step backwards. Yet, we tangent.

Born that night was 2 digital photos that have survived no less than 3 alien invasions, 2 nuclear wars, and 18 repopulations of the world through government fluoride programs intended to impregnate teenagers. See Figures 1 and 2 for the only digital proof of that night that exists to this day and that sparked this topic.

Why did this poll take 10 years? We shall answer that with this tirade:

Why does 20 year old whiskey taste better as a belly shot?

Why do girls go to the bathroom as a group and not solo?

Why are Asians in porn born with blurred out genitals?

Thus is the way of the world.

Just as Washington State used to be the known for horse sex and dog farms, it is now a popular place to smoke weed, we can only answer with the following: times, they are changing.

The dregs were drafted from the fold, and ATC proudly presents Survey Question 3.

Question Definition

If you sleep with twins, at what point does it become incest?

More important, at what point does a person become the agent of said incest. In other words: “Are you an Accessory to Incest?”

Methods

Internet polling, via website input, was conducted. The poll was left active for one month with input done through a webpage survey for anonymous input. Advertisement of the poll was done primarily through Facebook groups and sharing.

Analysis

Upon closing the poll, only a mere seven numerical results were obtained. This has proven that the age of internet is slowly dying in our eyes. Cat videos, being the downfall of Rome, are now too strong in the current state of the world. We feel ourselves to be one of the last bastions of internet-free America. As such, our resistance is minor, but growing.

The stories are paraphrased in the comments section of this report.

Five males participated. Two females participated. Despite the small sample size, we feel the results of this poll could easily be extrapolated to the greater population. While statistics would state our poll only represents at most, a busy table in a pub, we have erroneously applied this to the greater population of the world as non-disputable fact.

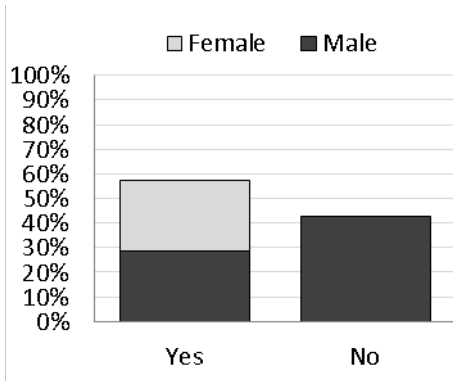

The range of ages responding was 27 to 40. The median age was 33 years old.

Five of the respondents had brown hair, one was blonde, and one was a ginger.

Of the respondents, 28% drove black vehicles, while 14% each respectively drove a white, silver, maroon, green, or had no vehicle at all.

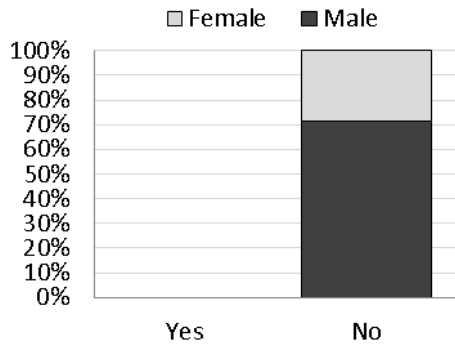

Results

A. Is Incest Wrong?

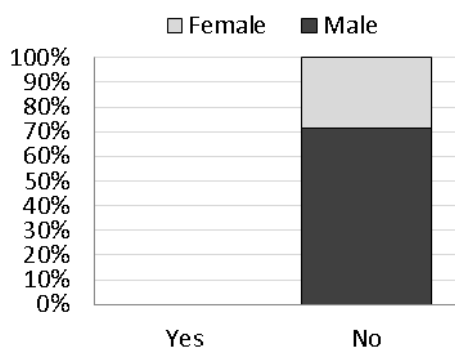

This was the simplest of questions, yet the most interesting of results. If you were to ask seven strangers if incest were wrong, what percentage of “no” would you think you’d get? Well, in this case, we got only 57% “no” responses. Forty three percent (43%) think there is nothing wrong with incest. Zero females thought incest was okay. This will become important as the questions progress as our journey as to what is incest proceeds.

B. You just made out hot and heavy on the porch with Sibling A. Some saliva is still on your lips. You walk in and find yourself under the mistletoe and kiss Sibling B. Saliva from Sibling A mixes with Sibling B via your mouth. Is this incest?

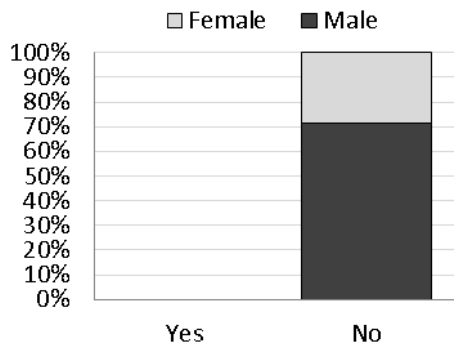

100% No. Swap spit as much as you want. No one will blame you.

C. You open the fridge to grab a beer, but there is only one left. You grab Sibling A's hand to prevent them from taking the last beer. Sibling B dives in to also grab the beer. In the action, Sibling A's hand grabs Sibling B's private parts (over clothes). Is this incest?

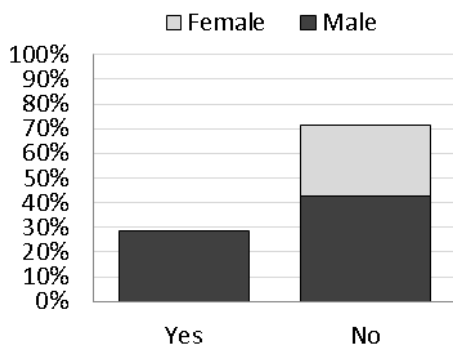

100% No. Moral: when sandwiched between siblings, be sure to maneuver yourself such that they sneak a grope in, it doesn't count.

D. Being the town pump that you are, you're banging with Sibling A in the closet. Ten minutes later, you're in the closet with Sibling B. Part of the sex fluid from Sibling A mixes with Sibling B. Is this incest?

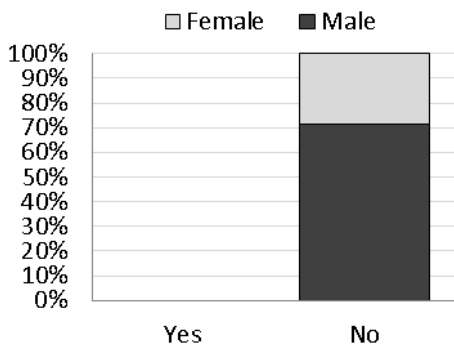

100% No. Cream swapping and double jizz cakes are not only acceptable, but also encouraged. In fact, you're allowed to be a receptacle (aside: this rhymes with testicle for more than one reason) for a whole family of game night fun.

E. You get both siblings drunk and dare them to kiss. They do. Is this incest?

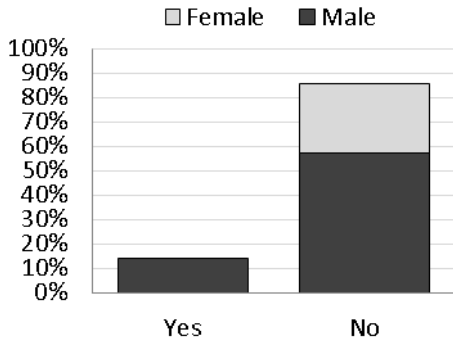

29% Yes. We finally have some definition of the line of incest. Nearly a third of the responses think a little sister kissing may be drawing the line. As a truly interesting statistic, no female had an issue with this. Remember this little gem of knowledge at your next family reunion.

F. You get in a three way meat triangle in the bedroom at a party. NO part of Sibling A touches a part from Sibling B. Is this incest?

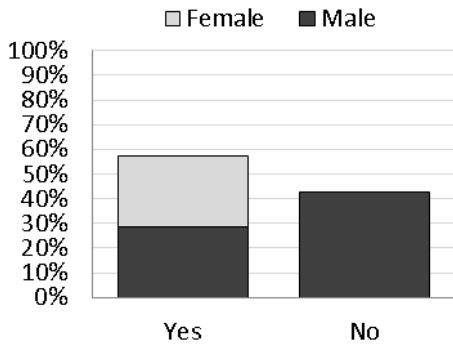

100% No! We ask that you read this again as we were quite surprised. Threesomes with twins, sisters, etc., are 100% not incest so long as they do not touch. This does reinforce that being a receptacle of fluids makes you immune to incest, even if the siblings are in the same room playing hole roulette. Ignore the 10 second rule and let that DNA slurpies fly all over, but mind the blacklights.

G. Half way through the above example, in the dark, Sibling A's hands grab Sibling B's private parts. Is this incest?

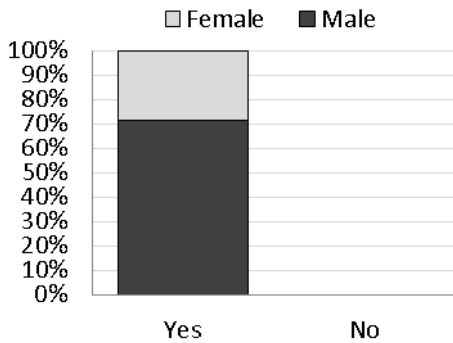

Less than 20% of males and 0% of females thought this was off limits. We can only imagine what growing up as a girl in a house hold of sisters was like at shower time with this sort of response!

H. In the drunken confusion, Sibling A gropes and kisses Sibling B. Is this incest?

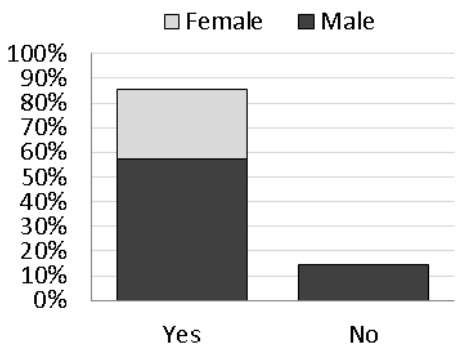

The line, perhaps is finally drawn! A common majority was finally reached. Groping with and without clothes is a go. Kissing is a go. Hole roulette is a go. However, do not naked grope and start kissing! 100% of females do not prefer the softer touch of a sister during a tongue tango. Yet, in a bro-night with a girl, the majority of males will not turn down a stray brotherly hand.

I. A body part from Sibling A enters Sibling B. Is this incest?

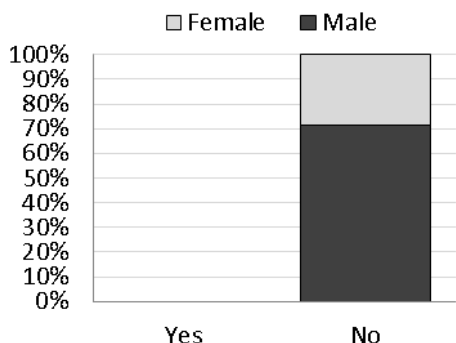

100% Yes. No toe in the nose. No wet willy. The definite answer is that no body part can enter another. The only exception is a little tongue to tongue doesn't count as stated above.

J. Would you sleep with hot twins?

86% Yes. This is where it gets really interesting. 80% of males said yes. If you're keeping count, and we know you are, 100% of females said yes. Despite all of the above questions, nearly the entire population (except males that drive white cars; seriously - we can't make this up) would sleep with hot twins.

K. You just found out that the Maid of Honor didn't wear underwear under the pink dress in the coat closet at the church and then just happened to find out that her younger sister wore a thong 10 minutes later in the same coat closet, is that so wrong?

100% No. Banging sisters in the closet at the church during a wedding is 100% okay. Just give it a 10 minute break between sisters.

Conclusions

It is very difficult to become an accessory to incest, as the only true definition that received at least 50% of the votes towards yes (groping and kissing for guy, body parts entering for girls) counts as incest. Then to become an accessory, you need to be in the act with them. No amount of fluid swapping, time between, or even kissing counts. Who knew? We do now, and knowing is half the battle.

Comments

This is our favorite portion of every poll. For everyone's viewing pleasure, in no particular order, the comments:

I dated my husband's brother on and off for a while. While we were "off" I dated his brother (my husband) and that continued for about 3 years. lol. – female

Most twins are actually not that good looking. – male

I know a dude that was dating this chick and got drunk and then banged her mom thinking it was his girlfriend. His girlfriend was so pissed. She didn't join in. – male

Incest is about breeding, not sex. – male

Not lucky enough to be a twin...or have a hot sister, or a chance at a threesome. – female

I'd bang me if I were twins. – male

All fun and games until someone's pregnant. – female

Unsure what a three way meat triangle is. Google didn't help. Assuming no. – male
