Conclusions

For this poll, we're going to let the infographic speak for itself. There really isn't much else to add other than perhaps approximately the same population of people that enjoy Nicholas Cage films have also rubbed one out before sex to last longer. Gone in 60 Seconds?

We did a quick google search and found a similar poll at <http://jezebel.com/poll-how-often-do-you-really-masturbate-1586601491> and the results we found seemed to correlate very closely. Cheers to the internet!

Masturbation Story Time

Your responses:

A co-worker overshared over lunch one day and explained that he was 'on top' one night when their pet akita (120 lb Japanese police dog) jumped on top and start furiously licking his asshole. They thought it was funny so they let it continue. The few of us he told this story too couldn't believe what we were hearing ... not only what he did, but that he would casually share it with co-workers. We spent the next several years taking every opportunity to refer to (the dog's name was Kuma) his "Kumalingus", and "Manage Paw" experience. His wife, the other participant in this story, also worked with us and thought it was funny he told us. They both were later caught fucking in the networking closet. Fortunately the dog was left at home. - male

This one time, I wanted to masturbate like an astronaut, so I propped myself upside down vertically in the shower (because that's what astronauts do) and began to hit the rocket waiting for launch. Once take off occurred (which, usually I'd like be a few minutes, but with the blood rushing to my head, I was trying to get in a record speed run in as I was getting dizzy). I anticipated the laws of physics were in my favor with the initial velocity I was used to. I was wrong! Man goo ended up dropping straight down into my nose. In the shock of the self-facial, I let loose with my hand holding me up causing a chain reaction I am not proud of. I smacked my face onto the floor of the tub/shower as I rotated forward. My legs flung out looking for anything, but I was already spinning like Baumgartner shortly after he jumped out of the space capsule. My legs nailed the tub sides bruising them up as they attempted to bend in reverse. It wasn't quite the happy ending I had envisioned. Banged up, bruised, and covered in goo. I haven't attempted that a second time. – male

This one time I was getting a hand job from a chick and I shot that shit straight into my own eyes. My eye hasn't been the same since. That stuff will make you go blind. – male

All joking aside, the Stranger is very hard to successfully perform. Between the fact that your hand has poor mobility when it's asleep and that you have a short window before it gets all tingly and annoying... – male

Easy, I miss sex! – female

Masturbation is awesome, but sex is better! – female

I am saddened by the fact that men out-masturbate women greatly, yet women have far more unique and interesting ways of satisfying themselves than men do. – male
